 🌟 Join Us for a Transformative Professional Development Meeting! 🌟 **

🗓️ Date: August 28
📍 Location: Washington State

We are thrilled to announce a special event featuring Douglas Kent, the EVP and co-author of "Sustainable Supply Chain Orchestration: Unlearning for a Better Tomorrow." This is a unique opportunity to gain insights from a leading expert in sustainability and supply chains.

Douglas Kent, along with ASCM thought leader Deborah Dull, has been instrumental in advocating for climate change and circularity in supply chains. Their transformative framework will help drive meaningful change in your organization. Don't miss the chance to delve deeper into these groundbreaking theories and network with professionals passionate about sustainability.

Save the date and join us for an inspiring session!
